TOM DEASO – Regional Sales Manager, East Coast

Tom started his career as Eastern Regional Manager with Ridge in 2016. He comes from 16 years in the wine business, most recently running the New England territory for Accolade Wines. His territory for Ridge covers the entire Eastern seaboard of 18 states with 19 distributors.

His passion for wine was developed working in restaurants where he was responsible for two award winning wine lists in Michigan. He transitioned from restaurants into the wholesale side which lead him to working directly for wineries.

Being from the Nutmeg state Tom loves all the 4 seasons and is passionate about spending time with his wife, Stacey, and their 3 kids.

Tom is honored to be a part of the Ridge Team and their commitment to producing wines of the highest quality.
